

Marco van Vliet is a smart resilience visionair pairing innovative cyber technologies and Business continuity processes.

Advisor and CEO SQNetworks Cyber Security:

Professional expertise in the area of smart card technologies, security document management solutions and Cyber Security for Governments, banks and corporate environments. SQNetworks provides the most advanced cyber security against insider and outsider threats.

Background in Economics, Marketing and Electronics. 27 Years experience at Kudelski Group Switzerland and security organisations in the Netherlands.